

Master Chimbala.

A Zambian leader, communicator, broadcaster, educator and author who helps institutions and audiences turn conviction into practical, measurable action.

— SHORT · APPROX. 60 WORDS

Master Chimbala is a Zambian leader, communicator, broadcaster, educator and author whose work spans more than two decades of public engagement. He speaks, writes and broadcasts on leadership, governance, public health, social protection, communication and enterprise, and leads the Master Chimbala Ecosystem, a family of ventures in media, publishing, mentorship and civic advocacy.

— MEDIUM · APPROX. 120 WORDS

Master Chimbala is a Zambian leader, communicator, media practitioner and educator with over two decades of experience shaping conversations across leadership, governance, public health, social protection, entrepreneurship and personal development. Through keynotes, broadcasts, publications and mentorship, he engages audiences ranging from government institutions and universities to churches, corporates and international spaces. He is the cornerstone of the Master Chimbala Ecosystem, which brings together media platforms, a publishing practice, mentorship programmes and consultancy under one editorial standard. His work is defined by clarity, conviction and a mandate to inspire purposeful action, and his engagements have taken him to more than twenty-five countries.

“

Words shape lives and nations. Nothing a leader says is neutral.

— EXTENDED · APPROX. 300 WORDS

The full record.

Master Chimbala is a Zambian leader, communicator, broadcaster, educator and social entrepreneur whose work spans more than two decades of public engagement. He is the founding conerstone of the Master Chimbala Ecosystem, which is a family of diverse ventures across media, publishing, mentorship, consultancy and civic advocacy through which he equips individuals, institutions and communities with the ideas and tools required for meaningful transformation and growth.

As a speaker, he has addressed audiences in government, corporate, academic, faith-based and development environments. His talks integrate agency, leadership, communication, governance, human rights, public health, social protection, entrepreneurship, youth development, customer experience and organisational culture into practical, story-driven experiences that challenge assumptions and equip audiences with actionable insight.

Alongside his speaking practice, Master Chimbala leads media platforms including Master Chimbala Media, Inspire Radio, Master Chimbala TV and Dynamic Masterpiece; publishes books, periodicals and articles; and mentors emerging leaders through The V Leadership Fellowship, Master's Mentorship and Master's Media Lab. His engagements have taken him to more than twenty-five countries.

Master Chimbala speaks with the conviction that words shape lives and nations, and that every audience deserves an experience that is engaging, practical, memorable and transformational.

— STAGE INTRODUCTION · 30 SECONDS

Our speaker is a Zambian leader, communicator, broadcaster, educator and author, and the conerstone of the Master Chimbala Ecosystem. For more than two decades he has spoken on leadership, governance, public health, social protection and enterprise in more than twenty-five countries. He believes words shape lives and nations. Please welcome Master Chimbala.

— MEDIA CONTACT

EMAIL	surge@chimbala.com
TELEPHONE	+260-976-088-271
WEBSITE	chimbala-ecosystem-hub.lovable.app
TELEVISION	www.masterchimbala.tv